Prophetic Word To My Pastors

"Who are these men who refuse to obey Me? For I have given them to guide My Church, and to do My will, but instead they use it for self. I did not call them to make money off My people but to use it for My will instead. That they refuse to do but use it for self, My son. For My pastors refuse to obey Me, to train My Church for world evangelism, for every believer is an evangelist to spread My Gospel. That they refuse to do, keeping My money instead. For My Church is a training ground for the ministry, and every believer a minister. That they refuse to do, building up for self edifices of steel while refusing to do My will. Every disciple is an evangelist, called to every area of the globe, but My pastors refuse to train them, keeping them in the dark of ignorance outside My will. That I will punish with judgment and wrath, for they refuse to do My will, My son. I called My pastors to train My disciples for the mission field, unto which all must go, but they refuse, keeping the money for themselves. I will replace them, the modern pastor, with men after My Own Heart who will do My will, My son, not their own. I called them to obey Me, and that they will do, not their own. For unto the mission fields I call all called by My Name that My world may be evangelized, that every man may hear the Gospel all around the world. Your LORD has spoken, My son. Amen and amen."

Preach My Gospel All Over The World "My son, I Am God. I Am the Living God, My son. The world does not know Me. Preach My Gospel. Go into all the world for the lost are everywhere, even your parents. They refuse to obey. Many are lost because of stubbornness– they want Me not. Many are going to Hell– they refuse to obey. My son, My Church refuses to obey Me. They abandoned Gospel preaching years ago. My wrath is against them. They refuse to obey. Who will go? Who can I send, My son? My people refuse to obey. I gave them My Spirit, and still they sit at home, ignoring the lost. My heart is set against them, and is full of wrath. You feel it. And still they refuse to go to preach My Gospel. My son, sinners abound everywhere. They are lost without Me, heading to Hell. My son, will you go? Few will do My will. Few will go to obey My command to preach the Gospel. Will you go? I called all of My people, but few will obey Me, My son. They sit at home doing nothing while the world goes to Hell. They won't save themselves– you have to go preach to them. Obey My Gospel– preach to all nations. My people refuse to go. I will say 'depart from Me.' Into fire they will go, the Lake of Fire forever. Few will be saved because few obey Me and do My Father's will for their lives, My son. Few will obey Me and go into all the world, My son, and preach My Gospel. I call all to be saved, but few do. Many refuse, prefer to stay in the world of sin. Few will obey Me and repent, My son. Few will be saved, the rest will go to Hell. You must reach all with the message of salvation. Your LORD has spoken."
